PROGRAMS

Civil War Nurse Mary Ann Bickerdyke

Presented by Helen Miam

Saturday, March 14 at 11AM

The Civil War Museum, 5400 First Ave., Kenosha, WI 53140

Before the Civil War, Mary Ann Bickerdyke, a widow from Galesburg, Illinois, struggled with her family to survive. During the War, she became one of the Union Army's most trusted and beloved nurses and hospital administrators. This presentation will give you an insight into the driving force that kept this feisty woman with the Union Army until the end of the war and was called among other things, "The woman that outranked General Sherman."

A Recipe for Success: Lizzie Kander and the Settlement Cookbook

Presented by Bob Kahn

Saturday, March 14 at 1PM

The Civil War Museum, 5400 First Ave., Kenosha, WI 53140

First published in 1901, Kander's The Settlement Cookbook: The Way to a Man's Heart taught thousands of young immigrant girls how to cook "American-style." It became one of the most successful fundraising cookbooks in history, and the proceeds helped build Milwaukee's first settlement house and later the Jewish Community Center. Join Bob as he shares stories about Lizzie, her cookbook, and life in Milwaukee during the late 19th and early 20th century. Participants are encouraged to bring their own Settlement Cookbooks to the presentation.
