MEMO TO: Nels Leutwiler, Chair
Executive Committee

Nels Leutwiler, Chair
Preservation Foundation Board

FROM: Erika Stergos
Preservation Foundation Executive Director

RECOMMENDATION: Recommend a resolution nominating the 2025 Board of Directors of the Preservation Foundation

FINANCIAL DATA: No financial impact.

BACKGROUND: Under the bylaws of the Foundation, as amended on May 25, 2023, Directors of the Preservation Foundation are elected to a three-year term of service and approved annually by the Voting Members at the Annual Member Meeting.

The Foundation's bylaws state the number of Directors should be between ten (10) and twenty-five (25) members and should include two Lake County Forest Preserve District Commissioners, as appointed by the President of the Forest Preserves. The bylaws also state the Forest Preserve Executive Director shall be an ex-officio member of the Preservation Foundation Board of Directors with voting rights.

The Board of Directors approves a list of candidates, which may include additions to or deletions from the recommendations of the Board's Executive Committee, if any. The Board of Directors submits its approved list of recommended candidates to the Voting Members for election at the next Annual Member Meeting.
